POLICE INCIDENTS

Police incidents cover several key areas of service that include emergency and non-emergency calls to our agency requesting a police response. Police incidents consist of our response to in progress crimes, delayed reports of criminal activity, traffic crashes, disturbances, civil matters, and more. Also incorporated in police incidents are law enforcement activities such as traffic stops, citizen contacts, neighborhood patrols and traffic safety initiatives.

CRIME

Uniform crime reporting (UCR) is a collective effort on the part of city, county, state, tribal, and federal law enforcement agencies to present a nationwide view of crime. The Wilton Manors Police Department (WMPD) collects crime data and reports it to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). The FBI is responsible for reviewing submissions, and certifying their accuracy and authenticity. Data contained in this quarterly report has yet to be submitted and reviewed by the FBI. Part I UCR Crimes categories are Murder, Rape, Aggravated Assault, Robbery, Burglary, Larceny, Motor Vehicle Theft and Arson.

City of Wilton Manors Part I UCR Crime - 20 Year Perspective
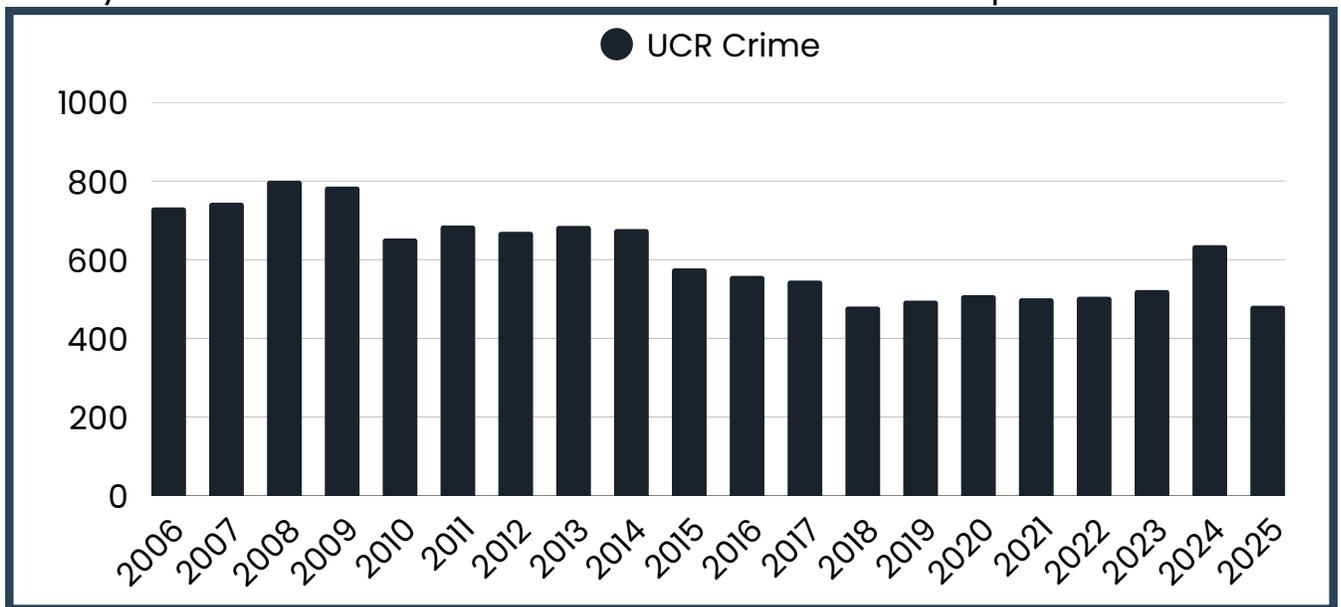

This 20 year perspective into UCR crime shows an approximately 34% reduction in Part I UCR crime when comparing the initial year of 2006 to the most recent year of 2025. 2008 saw 801 Part I UCR crimes marking the highest number in this timespan while 2018 saw the lowest at 481 crimes. Unofficial figures for 2023, 2024 and 2025 are 523, 637 and 483 Part I UCR crimes respectively.
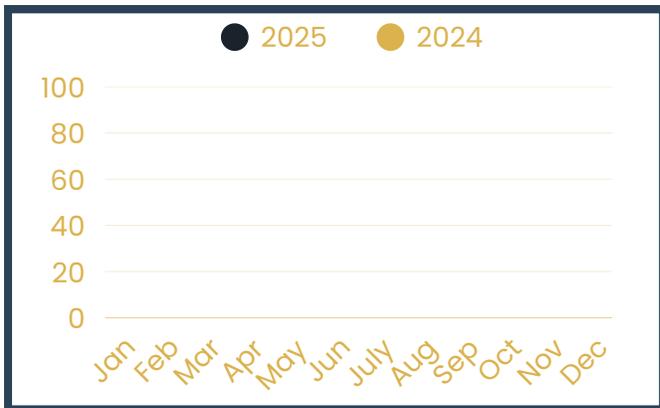

PART I CRIME

Murder

The FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program defines murder and nonnegligent manslaughter as the willful (nonnegligent) killing of one human being by another.

ARRESTS

Arrests are the result of Wilton Manors Police Officers establishing probable cause a crime has been committed. Arrests are made in the form of physical arrest called a "custodial arrest", or an individual may be issued a Notice to Appear for eligible misdemeanor offenses. Once issued a Notice to Appear, the arrestee is released with a requirement to appear in court to answer to the crimes charged. Some misdemeanor crimes such as domestic battery and impaired driving are ineligible for the Notice to Appear program.

OVERDOSE INCIDENTS

Overdoses are considered to be a medical emergency and, in many cases, can be a potentially life-threatening situation. Generally, this means that the consumption of substances was beyond the medication's recommended guidelines or beyond the body's tolerance level to manage safely. When dealing with overdose incidents, Officers and/or Medical Professionals will administer a dose or multiple doses of Narcan or Naloxone in order to reverse the affects of the substance and restore the individual back to   consciousness.
